Five little turkeys went outside to play,
Each one worried on Thanksgiving Day.

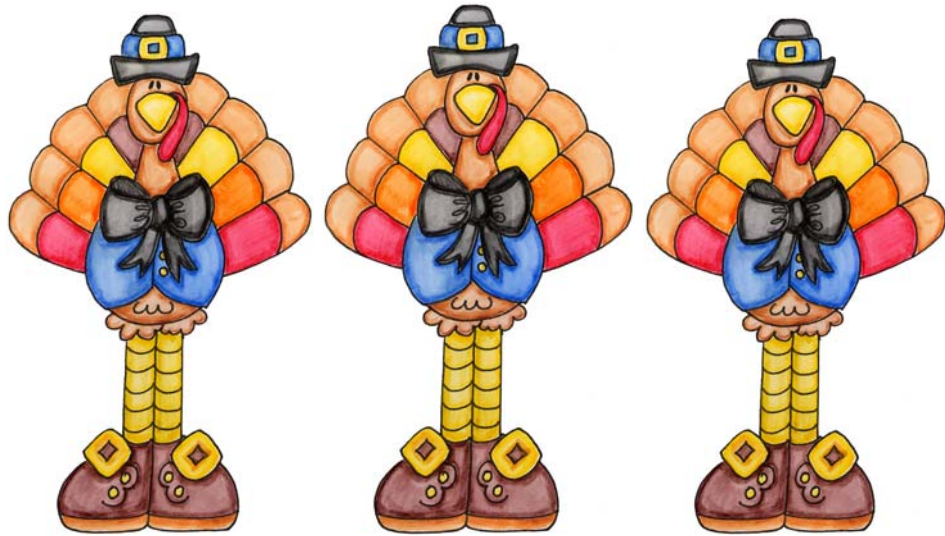

The first little turkey wouldn't wait anymore.
He ran a race and then there were four.

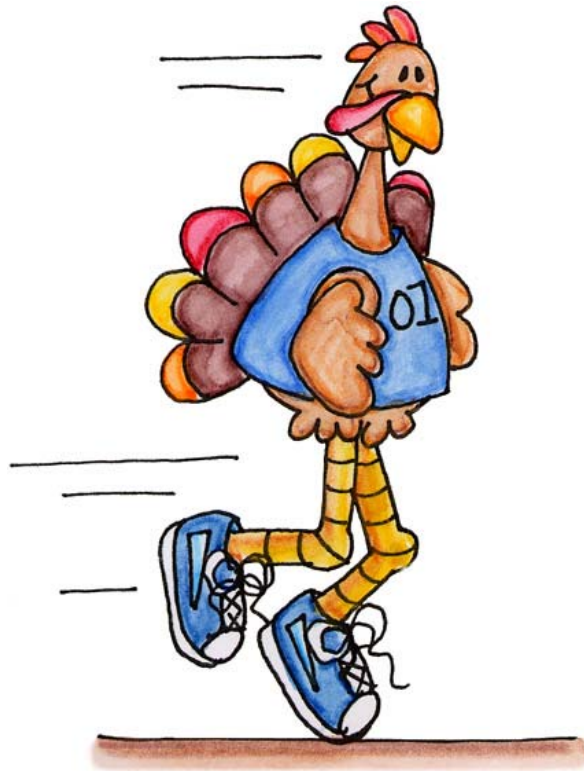

Four little turkeys went outside to play,
Each one worried on Thanksgiving Day.

The second little turkey said, "Wait for me!"
He ran a race and then there were three.

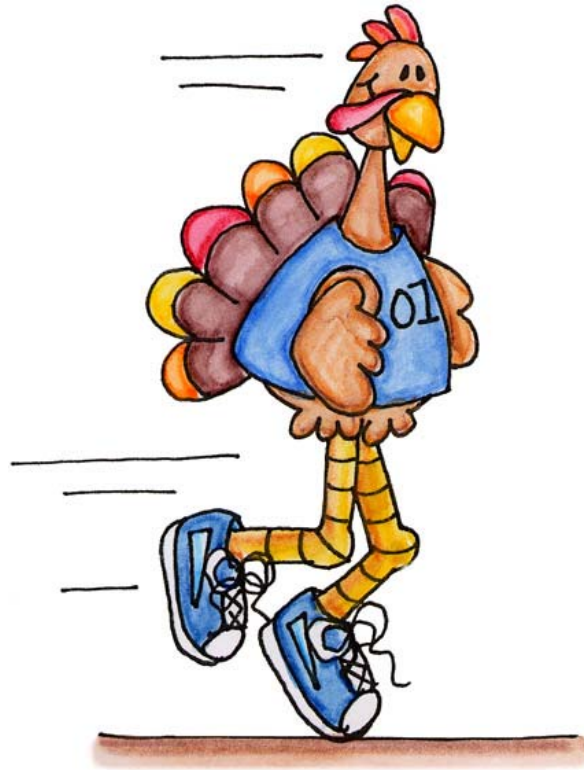

Three little turkeys went outside to play,
Each one worried on Thanksgiving Day.

The third little turkey said, "I'll run, too!"
He ran a race and then there were two.

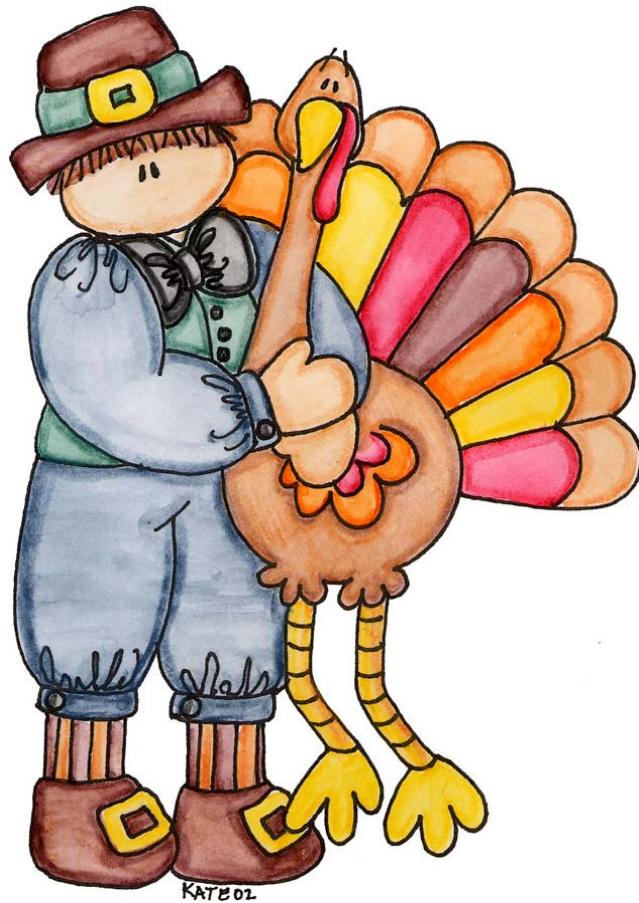

Two little turkeys went outside to play,
Each one worried on Thanksgiving Day.

The fourth little turkey said, "This is fun!"
He ran a race and then there was one.

One little turkey went outside to play.
He wasn't worried on Thanksgiving Day.

He was invited by his pilgrim friend.
Now he's gone and that's the end!
