No Fleas at This Flea Market!

Kobey's Swap Meet in San Diego, California, is no ordinary flea market. 12
If you like to shop for good deals, this is the place for you! It's like having 29 one giant garage sale in a parking lot. You don't have to waste the day away 45 trying to find the next yard sale full of someone's old stuff. 57

Some people do go to Kobey's to sell their old things, but there are a 72 lot of new things, too! You can find toys, clothes, jewelry, bikes, scooters, 85 kites, and books. Fruits, vegetables and fresh bread are also sold by some 98 sellers. You can even buy an old car if that's what you're looking for! There is 114 something for everyone at Kobey's, from the very young kids to the old 127 timers like me! 130

Every weekend, there are more than 1,000 sellers and 30,000 buyers 141 at Kobey's. If you want to get a head start on finding good prices, you should 157 be there by seven o'clock in the morning. 165

Some buyers start their shopping trip with a cup of coffee and a 178 doughnut or a bagel. If you haven't left by lunchtime, you can find lots of 193 things to eat here and there. You can get hotdogs, pretzels, pizza, and 206 sandwiches. Be sure to throw your trash away if you buy something to eat. 220

Put on your hat and your walking shoes, and I'll see you at Kobey's, but 235 don't look for any fleas at this market! 243
