

Name _____

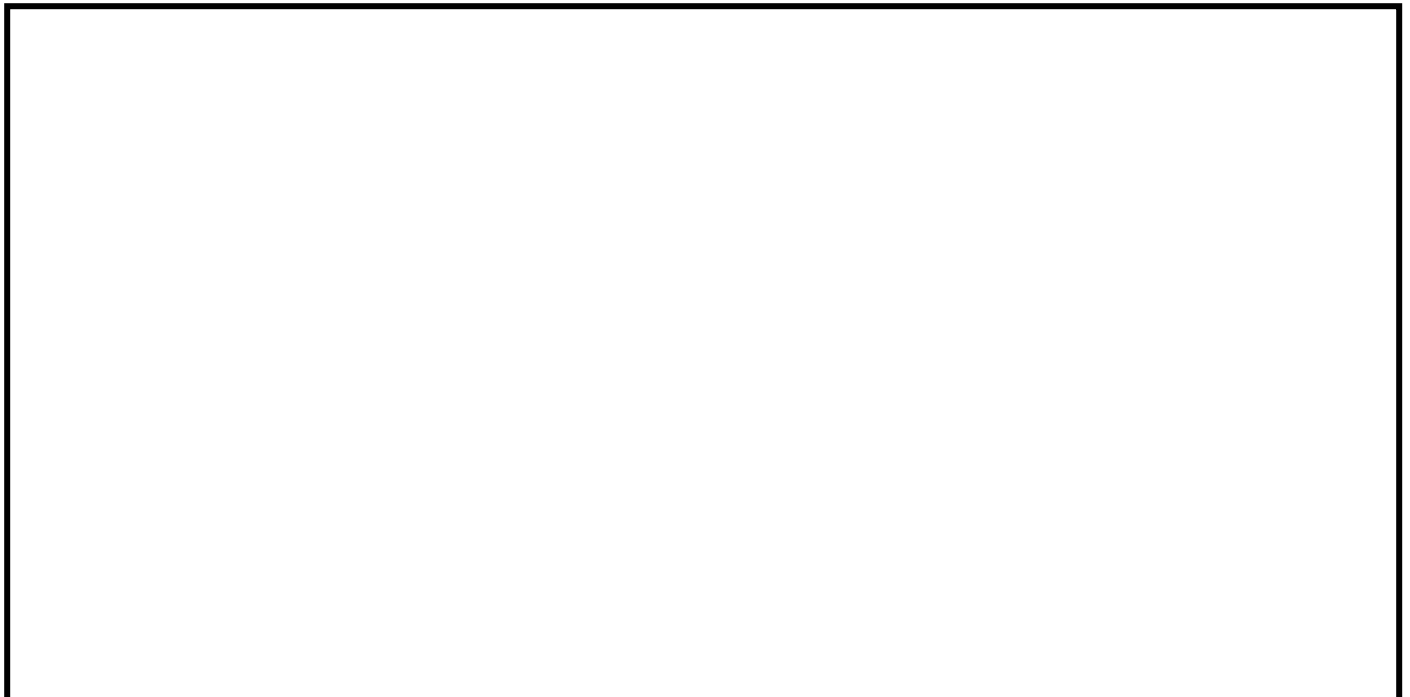

Read the story. Read it again. Can you find the special words in the story? Count the number of times that you see each special word and write it next to the word below. Draw a picture of the worm's fishing trip in the box below.

We Are the Worms!

We are the worms! Some of us are little, and some of us are big. We always have to go fishing, but we don't really want to catch anything! When we get to the lake, we go swimming down, down, down to the bottom. We see some big fish and then we see some little fish. I am just glad that they don't see me!

we _____ am _____ then _____ little _____ down _____

Fill in the Blanks

Read each sentence below. Circle the missing word and write it in the space.

1. _____

_____ are the worms!
why We

2. Some of us are _____

_____ .
little like

3. We swim _____

_____ to the bottom.
down brown

Yes or No?

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|-----|----|
| 1. Do the worms go fishing? | yes | no |
| 2. Do they want to catch a fish? | yes | no |
| 3. Do they swim in a puddle? | yes | no |
| 4. Are they big and little? | yes | no |
| 5. Do they see big fish? | yes | no |

It's a Match!

Draw a line to connect the naming part of the sentence with the action part of the sentence. Read them to yourself to make sure that they make sense. The first one is done for you.

We am glad that they don't see me.

Some of us are the worms!

We have to go fishing.

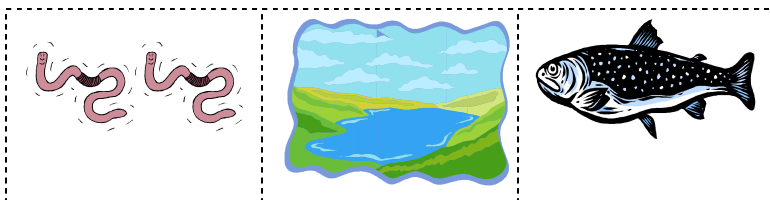

I are little and some of us are big.

We always see some big fish.

Who always goes fishing?

Where do they go fishing?

What do they see in the lake?

What's Next?

We always have to go fishing.

I am just glad that they don't see me!

We are the worms!

We see some big fish and then we see some little fish.

We go to the lake and then we go swimming.