

Name _____

Read the story. Read it again. Can you find the special words in the story? Count the number of times that you see each special word and write it next to the word below.

Put Too and Two Together To Get More

What do you see when you sit by the sea? I will tell you what I see with my eye. Take a little time and you will see what this story is really about!

I see too many boats, so I'll take a look at two of them. One of them has won many races with its large sail. Do you think it's for sale? No, I don't think so, but I would like to buy that ship made of wood that sails by the sea. I would put myself on that ship and take a long trip on the sea.

The second ship sails out to sea in the morning, catches many fish, and comes back right on time by four o'clock. I asked one fisherman, "Where do you get the right clothes to wear for fishing?"

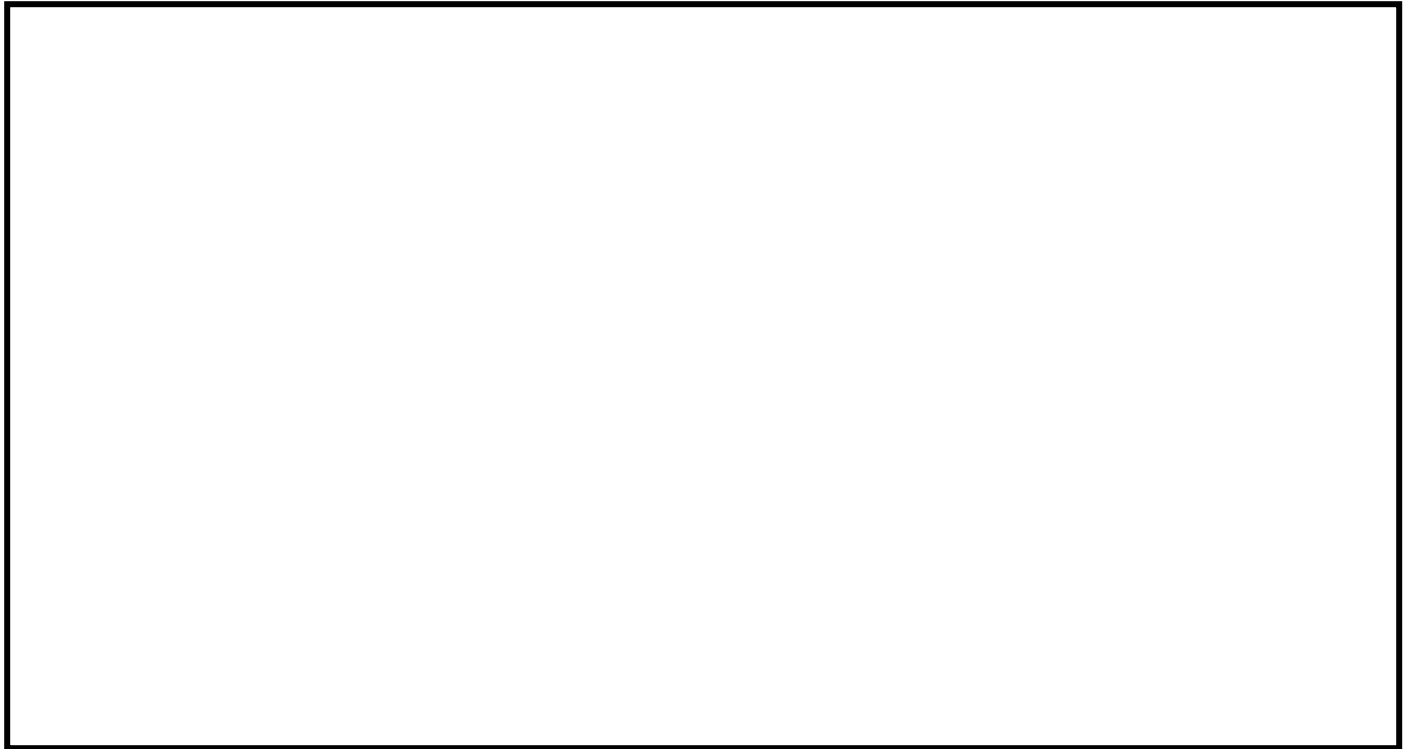

He laughed and said, "I got mine at the Seller in the Cellar! Would you like to come on board and learn how to fish? I won the fishing contest today. If you're bored, I can teach you how to tie your hook on the line with a knot!"

I said, "No, thank you. I can not do that today. I am due back at the Fisherman's Inn where I am going to meet two friends for dinner. We are having our favorite food in their restaurant. It's the meat of the sea . . . fish!" They're going to be there soon, so I do not want to be late!

Can you find and write the pairs of words that sound the same?

put _____	too _____	got _____	take _____	where _____
-----------	-----------	-----------	------------	-------------

Draw a picture of what the author sees when she sits by the sea.

Fill in the Blanks

Read each sentence below. Circle the missing word and write it in the space.

1. What do you _____ when you sit by the _____?
_____ sea see see sea

2. There are _____ many _____ see!
_____ too to two to

3. _____ will this ship _____ me?
_____ wear where tack take

Yes or No?

- | | | |
|---------------------------------------------|-----|----|
| 1. Is one ship made of wood? | yes | no |
| 2. Has it won many races? | yes | no |
| 3. Does the second ship sail out to sea? | yes | no |
| 4. Can the fisherman tie a knot on a hook? | yes | no |
| 5. Is the author going to meet too friends? | yes | no |

It's a Match!

Draw a line to connect the naming part of the sentence with the action part of the sentence. Read them to yourself to make sure that they make sense. The first one is done for you.

- | | |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| I | sails out to sea in the morning. |
| One of them | see too many boats. |
| The second ship | comes back right on time. |
| It | got his clothes at the seller in the cellar. |
| The fisherman | are having the meat of the sea . . . fish! |
| My friends and I | has won many races with its large sail. |

Two, Too and To?

Find all of the words that sound the same, but are not spelled the same way. The first pair is done for you. Be careful! Some words have more than one correct answer.

see	sea	one
do		its
for		sale
no		would
buy		right
in		where
seller		board
you're		not meet		their too		I

Too or Too?

Look at the three different dictionary meanings for the word too. Read the sentences below and choose the correct meaning. Write the number and meaning for each sentence. The first one is done for you.

too 1. In addition; also. 2. More than is needed or wanted. 3. Very.

1. I have too much homework tonight! 2
More than is needed or wanted.

2. This math problem is just too hard. _____

3. We have spelling homework, too. _____

4. I am too tired to finish it tonight. _____

5. May I have some dessert, too? _____

6. Yes, you may, but not too much. _____
